

Broken Pieces

Dear Diary, I worked all month on the worlds largest lego set, and had finally finished, but when I woke up, it was gone!

I searched all day, I searched everywhere, even the basement! The attic was the only place I hadn't looked, I'm not even alone there. (probably because of all the ghosts!)

Anyway I was walking back to my room, when I heard a thump, and then a pitter patter coming from above, I slowly looked up, and there it was, the hatch leading to the attic. I took a deep breath, and pulled the chord to open the hatch, the ladder fell down, but so did two legos!

I gasped and then slowly climbed up the ladder, I poked my head out into the attic, no ghosts yet. I climbed up into the attic, and there it was, the worst thing I've ever seen, a huge pile of legos! Just then I heard a pitter patter again, "It's a ghost!" I thought. But then my dog came sprinting up, he was chewing on something, a lego! I

I guess he broke my Lego set, I wonder how he got it up to the attic though, I guess some mysteries will never be solved.
